

Hello Everyone!

Firstly, a huge apology to everyone who tried to access the Kahoot quiz this week. It didn't quite go as planned. I did text out the link for the quiz which could be done at home. I am still working on something we can all do together!

It was so lovely to see the Y6's in school this week for our leavers event. I hope you enjoyed your gifts. Mrs Gibbins and the staff have all worked really hard on them. There were even a few tears from the video on Facebook. I can't believe we are on our last few weeks in school already.

The B bubble requested more art for the schedule this week! We have been working hard on the daily tasks in class and have found out some very interesting facts about Japan. This week there is some Japanese art and origami to have some fun with. We have also been working hard to write some excellent sentence stacking work based on The Shoe Maker video. Why don't you join in with us this week and show us your ideas?

As always, if you have any problems, questions or need help, send school an email and I will do what I can to help you.

Missing you all ☺

English

We have been enjoying writing using sentence stacking in school. Here is another great video to try. Could you send your best work to school for us to read?
